

1
2
3
4
5                   UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
6                   WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
7                   AT SEATTLE

8 JINBUM CHOI and SANGYOON
9 PARK,

10                   Plaintiffs,

11                   v.
12 XAVIER TAULEALEA, JANE DOE
13                   TAULEALEA, WORLDWIDE FLIGHT
14                   SERVICE,
15                   Defendants.

CASE NO. 2:24-cv-420
ORDER

16                   WORLDWIDE FLIGHT SERVICE,
17                   Third-Party Plaintiff,
18                   v.
19 KOREAN AIR LINES CO. LTD.,
20                   Third-Party Defendant.

21 On July 8, 2024, Third-Party Plaintiff Worldwide Flight Services and Third-
22 Party Defendant Korean Air Lines Co. Ltd. filed a stipulated motion to extend 23 Korean Air's deadline to file a responsive pleading. Dkt. No. 13. The Court reminds

1 the parties to review its Chambers Procedures, available at <https://www.wawd.uscourts.gov/judges/whitehead-procedures>. In relevant part, the procedures state,
2
3 “Parties may agree to extend the time for a defendant to answer or otherwise
4 respond to a complaint. So long as the parties agree to an extension, there’s no need
5 to file a stipulation with the Court.” See Chambers Procedures – Civil, 5.3
6 Extending Deadline to Answer.

7 Although the parties’ motion is unnecessary per the Court’s Chambers
8 Procedures for Civil Cases, the Court GRANTS the motion nevertheless. Dkt. No.
9 13. Korean Air’s responsive pleading deadline is extended to July 29, 2024.

10 Dated this 10th day of July, 2024.

11
12
13 Jamal N. Whitehead
14 United States District Judge
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23